THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET

OUTLOOK FOR SUCCESS IN NODAWAY NEVER BETTER.

CAMPAIGN ISSUES AROUSING INTEREST

Speakers and Candidates in Round of Meetings Have Good Crowds—Here is Ticket.

The Democratic county ticket is composed of a clean, intelligent set of men who are among our best citizens. The Democrats of this county take great pleasure in presenting these candidates, and earnestly appeal to the voters for their support.

The outlook for the success of the county ticket was never brighter. The speakers and candidates in their rounds of meetings held this week have had good crowds, and the voters of the county have been deeply interested in the issues of the campaign.

For Representative.

William Job is the Democratic nominee, and will spare neither time nor trouble in looking after the interests of the people of this county. Mr. Job was engrossing clerk of the house in the 46th assembly, and during the next session was assistant chief engrossing clerk of the senate. During the 48th assembly and for some time after its adjournment, he was assistant clerk in the office of E. P. Deal, state treasurer. He knows all branches of state legislative work. Mr. Job says:

"Should I be elected I will do everything I can, and will put every particle of strength and common sense I have into the work in trying to secure and promote legislation that will serve the best interests of all people of the county and state."

For Sheriff.

For the important office of sheriff the Democratic party presents the name of E. C. Moberly. He was elected twice as police chief of Maryville, and had one of the best administrations any police chief has given this city. He has also served as deputy sheriff. Honest, sober, capable, fearless and well

A "Humbug" Candidate

Here is the honest opinion of a Republican editor regarding Judge Lamm, the Republican nominee for governor. In its issue of Saturday, July 29, 1916, the Maryville Tribune contained the following signed editorial. This was before the August primary, and shows what Fred Hull really thinks of Judge Lamm. It is short, but it is one of the best editorials Fred ever wrote. It is interesting and is worth your attention. Read it, headline and all:

"ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN."

Those who heard Judge Lamm's address in this city last week will remember that in his attack on the state primary law he said the law made "humbugs" of candidates, dry in dry territory and wet in wet territory. He seems to be proving the truth of this statement as will be shown in the following excerpt taken from his speech delivered in St. Louis last Monday night and reported in Tuesday's edition of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat:

"As to prohibition, I do not think either the Republican or the Democratic party will declare for or against it. The Republican party, it is true, is for home rule and local option, which means that those who want their beer can have it. Prohibition is a false and fictitious issue in this campaign.

"Prohibition is to be voted on this fall in a constitutional amendment, and if it is written as a law, all we can do is to obey it. There are those who try to cram prohibition down our necks, and this is un-American."

Judge Lamm didn't express this sentiment in his speech here. Perhaps he thought it wouldn't be popular—and he said the state primary law makes a candidate "all things to all men."

Reports from over the state indicate that the race for governor on the Republican ticket lies between Judge Lamm and John E. Swanger. I believe John E. Swanger is the man who should be nominated. I believe he is "square" and I believe he is the man whom the Democrats most fear.

VOTERS, the office of Prosecuting Attorney is a mighty important one. The record I have made for efficiency and economy, in conducting your business, ought to appeal to the thoughtful. If you have confidence to believe that I will continue the same policy, then why change? I am young enough to render the work this office demands. Your vote and help on the 7th. will be greatly appreciated by me.

MUST PAY POLL TAX

THE CITY COUNCIL ORDERS SUIT BROUGHT AGAINST DELINQUENTS.

ONE LICENSE REFUSED

Linville Pool Hall Must Conform to Ordinance Before Permission to Run Can Be Given.

At the regular meeting of the city council last night the board ordered the city attorney to bring suit at once against those who have failed or have refused to pay their poll tax. There is quite a number of these citizens, and the city is going to make a determined effort to collect from them.

The city grader with Street Commissioner M. I. Woods is going to grade the road commencing at the north end of Mulberry, west on Prather avenue to the Bovard corner. The expense of the work will be paid by the township board.

The Linville hotel pool hall license was not granted, as the pool hall ordinance had not been complied with. Pool rooms must be located so that an unobstructed view from the front is possible. The Linville pool hall is located in a room back of the writing room.

The license asked for by Lambert Stephens in the basement under the Casey shop, in the Keeler building, was not passed upon finally, the city attorney being instructed to investigate and see that the bowling alley comes up to the ordinance.

The report of the police judge shows ten miscellaneous cases for the month of October. There was only one case of drunkenness and it is said the whisky which caused this violation of the law was secured in St. Joseph.

The council adjourned until November 17, when they will consider sidewalk contracts and let bids for these walks. The council is to make vigorous efforts for new sidewalks.

STIGALL TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Judge Charles Mayer of St. Joseph addressed the Woodrow Wilson club at Barnard last night. Several Democrats from Maryville attended. The theater where the meeting was held was packed. Judge Mayer is to speak in Conception Junction this evening.

PASS RESOLUTIONS

JOINT TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION CLOSES TODAY.

PRAISE NORMAL WORK

Teachers Express Thanks to People of Maryville to President Richardson and Others Concerned.

The meeting of the Joint Teachers' association, which closed this morning, was a success, between 800 and 900 teachers having attended the sessions. A joint meeting of probably the same counties, with perhaps a few more, will be held in Maryville next year if the State Teachers' association does not meet in St. Joseph or some point closer.

The resolutions adopted b ythe teachers express their sincere thanks to the citizens and good people of Maryville for their kindness and hospitality; to President Richardson, the faculty and board of regents; to the state department for sending Mr. Oakerson with his valuable message; to the county superintendents of Atchison, Clinton, Gentry, Harrison and Nodaway counties for their efficient services in connection with it; to the Commercial club for the splendid auto ride and entertainment.

The rest of the resolutions follow:

We recommend that all teachers attending this meeting enroll for the State Teachers' association.

We also recommend that the joint association be made permanent and held annually except on years when the state association is within easy reach.

We hereby declare ourselves heartily in favor and in full sympathy with the efforts that are being put forth to secure a new constitution for the state of Missouri.

We favor holding the 1917 general session of the State Teachers' association at St. Joseph.

We endorse the teachers' and pupils' reading circle work, feeling that teachers doing this work are greatly benefited.

We heartily endorse the efficient work now being done by the Fifth District Normal school and recommend that teachers desiring additional training avail themselves of the opportunities offered by their own Normal school.

We heartily approve the work being done to secure uniformity in the various state schools of Missouri as regards credits, courses, terminology and requirements for certificates.

A RECORD SCORE TO JEWELLS

Maryville Normal School Was Defeated at Liberty Yesterday 102 to 0.

The State Normal team was defeated by William Jewell at Liberty yesterday afternoon by a score of 102 to 0, being the record score of the Missouri state conference. William Jewell used second string men practically all through the game, and it was the brilliant open field work of Fields, a scrub quarter, which helped the Jewells roll up touchdowns.

With the score 95 to 0 in the final period the Jewell rooters were yelling "We want a hundred!" and Strauss, the big fullback, was sent into the game by Coach Bowles. Strauss then ripped and smashed his way across the line for a touchdown and goal was kicked, which gave the Jewells two points over the century mark.

Misses Marguerite and Thelma Akey of Barnard were shopping in Maryville Thursday.

TARKIO TAKES GAME

DRAWS GOOD CROWDS

Game Not So Fast or Exciting as Expected, and Was Mixture of Good and Bad Football.

Not satisfied with winning the declamatory contest Thursday night, Tarkio also carried away the long end of a 21-6 score in their football game with the Maryville high school team yesterday afternoon. The game was a contest of a team composed of several very heavy men and several very small men against a team evenly balanced in weight. This time the evenly balanced team did not triumph. Withrow and Co. was too much for them.

The game was not so fast or exciting as was expected. Neither the teams nor the crowd showed the "pep" of the Savannah game. The day was too hot for good football. The crowd, however, was the best of the season. Tarkio was represented by a small crowd of very rabid rooters.

The game was a queer mixture of good and bad football. Both teams fumbled repeatedly and there were many errors of judgment. Maryville's fumbles were costly. Two of Tarkio's touchdowns were the direct result of fumbles, and Maryville several times lost the ball on fumbles or intercepted passes while within striking distance of Tarkio's goal.

As usual, Maryville was superior in line plunging, but they failed in the open game. They completed only one pass during the whole game, while Tarkio made six successful passes for a total of eighty yards. Tarkio, however, did not look like a championship team, relying mainly upon Withrow, their giant tackle, for their gains.

Tarkio scored two touchdowns in the first half, but failed to kick goal either time. The second touchdown was pure luck. Unable to gain, Tarkio attempted a field goal from Maryville's twenty-yard line. The kick fell short, and if it had been allowed to roll on over the goal line it would have been Maryville's ball on the twenty-yard line. But a Maryville man attempted to run with the ball and was downed in his tracks. Then on the first play Maryville fumbled and a Tarkio man fell on the ball for a touchdown.

In the third quarter the Maryville team missed a good chance to score. With the ball on Tarkio's ten yard line they were held for downs. The ball changed possession on the one yard line. Again, with the ball on Tarkio's twenty yard line, Maryville lost the ball on an intercepted pass.

In the fourth quarter Tarkio scored two points on a safety, Daniels being forced over his own goal line. Score, 14-0. Maryville made a touchdown in the same quarter. Condon replaced

HAS NO SLUSH FUND

THE DEMOCRATS HAVE NO SLUSH BARREL TO BUY VOTES.

WILSON BY 60,000 IN MO.

Senator Reed Will Run Close to the Head of the Ticket is the Prediction of Judge Cowgill.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 4.—Judge James Cowgill, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, was in a happy, satisfied mood today.

"We have this election won, both state and nation," Judge Cowgill said. "The Republican millions will not suffice to buy the voters this year. More than a million dollars, I am reliably informed, is being spent by the Republicans just now in buying advertising space in the Republican and independent metropolitan newspapers throughout the country, and even some Democratic newspapers are being induced to print Republican advertising assaults on President Wilson and his administration.

"The State Democratic Committee has accumulated its fund from the people, donations from 50 cents up, and it, therefore, has no slush barrel with which to buy or attempt to corrupt voters. It is not conducting that character of campaign. It has appealed to the intellect and not to the pockets of the electors.

"I do not believe that the million dollars invested in buying page upon page of glaring advertisements filled with absurdities and glaring misrepresentations will influence a single vote.

"The thoughtful voters of this country are going to let 'Well enough alone.' They are going to vote for President Wilson, in whose hands they know the nation is safe. Business men are not disturbed, as they usually are in presidential election year; labor was never so contented; the country was never so prosperous.

"The enormous profits of the munitions of war plants flowing into the Republican campaign coffers cannot stop the cyclone of sentiment now raging from one end of the country to the other in favor of President Wilson. Conditions are growing better every hour.

"As to Missouri, Wilson will carry the state by not less than 50,000 and his majority may reach 100,000. Senator Reed will run close to the head of the

MISS RONZONE GIVES THEORY ON DRESS

Mrs. W. H. Jobe on Program for Discussion of Parent-Teacher Organizations.

The closing session of the joint teachers' meeting was held this morning, President Richardson of the State Normal school was the chairman of the meeting. The morning program was opened with a violin solo by Miss Ruth Hankins. The selections were heartily encored. Prof. H. B. Schuler sang two solos which were well received.

Miss Olive S. De Luce of the Art department gave a talk on "Drawing in the Grades." Extracts follow:

"An art education is valuable, first, because it helps one to create beautiful things, and second, helps to appreciate good things when we see them.

"The theory that only those gifted can learn to draw is false.

"The teaching of art should be connected with both the home and the school curriculum.

"The school should make use of drawing to further other studies."

Just before noon a group picture was taken of former Normal students. A cut will be made of the picture for the Normal Annual.

Talks on Clothing.

Miss Ethel Ronzone of the home economics department of the University of Missouri spoke on the subject "The Hygiene of Clothing." She said:

The girl must know what to buy, how to make her clothes and how to wear them properly. The needs of the body must be considered. It should be taught in the grade schools before bad habits of dress are formed. They should have exercise and the clothing must be such that they are enabled to enjoy it.

Mrs. W. H. Jobe, president of the Missouri Parent-Teachers' organizations, spoke on the work of those organizations. The three ideals which should be sought are: First, to give parents opportunity for home making and child welfare. Second, have parents find what the school is doing. And third, to arouse the whole community. The teachers have done their duty but the parents have not.

WHAT MR. HUGHES THINKS OF HIMSELF.

In 1912, when Justice Hughes was a member of the Supreme Court and was asked to become a candidate for President, he said:

"The man who, on the highest judicial tribunal, would consider another office, is fit neither for the one he holds nor for the one to which he aspires."

WHAT NEW YORK THINKS OF MR. HUGHES.

In the New York state election in 1908, the majority vote for Mr. Taft for President, was.....202,602

That for Mr. Hughes for Governor, was.... 69,462

In this particular year of our Lord, there is no good reason why any good citizen of Nodaway county should not take a democratic ticket and vote it straight from Woodrow Wilson down.

It seems to be the game of the republican managers in this county to center their efforts on the election of one or two men and let the balance go. At least that is what some good republicans are disposed to think.

Judge Mat Farnon has made a good county judge an dhas the advantage of the experience that a term in this office supplies. He has been honest and attentive in the discharge of his duties and should be re-elected.

Judge Lamm has been trying to kick up enough dust about the Gardner Land Bank bill to hide his backers, Otto Stifel and Jep Howe of St. Louey, from the view of the country voters. Neither has he told the people that a building owned by him in Sedalia is and has been occupied by a saloon.

Judge Lamm, Republican candidate for Governor of Missouri, in a speech in St. Louis during the primary campaign, among other things, said: "The republican party, it is true, is for home rule and local option, which means that those who want their beer can have it. Prohibition is a false and fictitious issue in this campaign. There are those who want to cram prohibition down our necks, and this is un-American." This was when he was seeking votes in St. Louis. See editorial in Maryville Tribune, July 29, 1916. This is the same Judge Lamm the Tribune is now telling you should be elected Governor.

Will G. Sawyers is experienced in the knowledge and practice of criminal law. This is the kind of practice that a prosecuting attorney has to deal with.

His opponet has specialized in probate law, but there is a vast difference between the probate court and the criminal practice before circuit courts. Criminal prosecutions are difficult and require all the knowledge and skill that it is possible to secure to safeguard the order and good citizenship of both county and state. Mr. Sawyers has endeavored to do this without putting the county to unnecessary costs, and has been successful. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected.

Yesterday Afternoons Program.

The Barnard school gave a musical program at the yesterday afternoon session. A song was given by Berneta Henderson, two solos by Louise Tulloch, a reading, "The Telephone Romance," by Cleta Rasco, and a song by Lorena Strader.

Dr. H. R. DeBra, president of Missouri-Wesleyan college at Cameron, spoke on "Higher Education." He said:

"The college is intermediate between the high school and the university. The denominational college is the institution for the training of the immature youth after he leaves the high school and before he enters the large student body of the university and where he is not cared for in a moral way.

"The prairie chicken, when frightened, rises so swiftly that few hunters are able to shoot it. It rises about ten feet in the air and shoots off in a straight line. It just reaches a 10-foot elevation. The eagle, large and awkward, is very clumsy in its attempts to rise in flight. Slowly and gradual it lifts itself from the ground. But it rises higher and higher and higher. It soars and soars until we see it in the face of the sun almost a speck. So it is in education. The boy who stops school at the eighth grade at the high school is like the prairie chicken. He rises, but only gets so high. The man with the college education spends years in preparation, but when he starts up he soars and soars.

Supt. Mays Speaks.

Some of the most potent remarks made by Supt. V. G. Mays of the St. Joseph schools in the discussion of his subject, "The Teacher's Contribution to Citizenship."

Citizenship is not only a privilege but a duty.

One teacher finds the pupil dull, and another teacher finds the same pupil responsive.

It is useless for the teacher to tell the child something it cannot hear and to give it something it cannot understand. Many business men cannot make a speech. But we do not treat them as we do the child when it cannot do a thing.

Teacher should open the ears of the child so it can hear the beautiful. Some children hear low tones, some hear the medium and others only those very high.

The child who, twenty years ago wore the temperance badge can vote today.

Rights are not of any more advantage to the individual than are the duties.

We should teach the pupil brotherly love, pure and clean citizenship and in the years of his manhood his sunkissed brow will project above the crowd.

Dr. William A. McKeever of the University of Kansas addressed the teachers on the subject "Putting the School Inside the Child." He said:

"The nature of the child is as old as the hills, and the question is not how to change it, but what to do with it.

"We should find out what the child wants to do rather than what we want him to do. I have on my table at home a small block. A youngster came to me and threw the block down on the table and said, 'I worked a whole week on that thing. There it is.' We should give the child an opportunity to exercise his interest.

"With the war in Europe, we must admit that our philosophy of life and education has broken down. If we get a true philosophy we must achieve it out of the instincts of the child."

Speaking of the successful man, Dr. McKeever said:

"What is a successful man? A successful man in any line is one who has a big soul that is on fire with love of his work.

"War has broken down our philosophy. We must build anew. An idea gets into the mind, it goes to the heart and radiates all over man. Then others are afflicted and soon the whole human race. And we move on and on to new thoughts, new feelings, new resolves and new purposes of life. We build new philosophies."

High Cost of Amusement.

Last night's program opened by several selections by the Normal orchestra. Then Mrs. F. P. Robinson favored the teachers with one of her delightful solos. Dr. William A. McKeever of Kansas university spoke on "The School and the High Cost of Amusement." He said:

"If I should come to your schools I would like to see the children at play. There is the greatest opportunity for teaching.

"The school has the child only 1,000 hours each year. The community has it the remainder of the time. If the school does not have the co-operation of the good elements of the community then its effect is overbalanced.

Play Must Be Supervised.

"The amusements must be supervised. The best time in life is childhood. We are running from it, though. The child's heritage has been stolen. Play and mixups develop character. The one who plays well will earn more in the future.

"This war is on because the nations restrained combat in the child and trained it for future combats. Patriotism is an achievement. It is more than singing songs and saluting the flag. The child must have his play, and if he is not given it the result will come in bloodshed."

The Rev. C. R. Green of the Harmony community then gave an illustrated lecture on the affairs of Harmony.

For Winter Colds

You need a real tonic. Strength is required to overcome the trouble. Let that tonic be one that is specially valuable in catarrhal conditions, and you can conquer the cold. A cold is acute catarrh; it may become chronic. Chronic catarrh frequently becomes systemic, involving the stomach and the intestinal tract as well as the nose or throat. It means stagnation.

PERUNA IS INVIGORATION

It clears away the waste matter, dispels the inflammation and tones up the system. For forty-five years it has been used in catarrh by thousands of grateful sufferers, who willingly tell the world of their relief. Peruna's long history of helpfulness is the best evidence that it is what you should take.

Liquid or tablet form for your convenience.

Manalin is the ideal laxative and liver tonic. In tablet form it is delicious to take, mild and effective, without unpleasant effects, and will not form a habit. Liquid, 35c and $1.00; tablets, 10c and 25c.

Christine Miller, radiant and magnetic as always, stepped from the wings and stood beside the cabinet. A moment later her rich, clear contralto swelled through Symphony Hall. The audience surrendered itself to the swell of her beautiful voice. Suddenly her lips ceased to move, but to our astonishment the same voice, indistinguishable from the voice we had just heard, continued to fill the auditorium. No longer it came from the warm throat of the singer, but from the depths of the cabinet at her side.

We were startled. We had heard two voices, identical, differing in not a shade or tone or quality. We had heard Christine Miller's living voice matched, tone for tone, in all its finest and most exquisite shadings, by the voice from the cabinet.

Test after test was made. Unless one watched the artist's lips it was impossible to tell whether one heard her or the instrument at her side. Finally the lights were turned off, and I feel sure that no one in Symphony Hall knew when Miss Miller was singing and when she was silent.

(From Carrighan Boykin's criticism of the tone test made by Christine Miller with the New Edison in Boston's Symphony Hall. Thousands of tests like this have been made in all parts of the country by world famous artists to show Edison's new art, music re-creation.

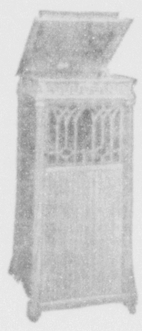
If you chance to be one of those who have thought of buying a talking machine, you should know that the New Edison cannot be compared with any talking machine. Could any talking machine manufacturer dare to permit his machine to be subjected to such a test in public as the one just described.



This wonderful new invention of Edison's is so superior to all needle machines that there cannot be a comparison. This master re-creator of sound and music has shown by thousands of tone tests that it cannot be distinguished from the original music or voice of the singer.

By far the finest instrument for the home or school, not only because it reproduces music and the human voice so perfectly it cannot be told from the original; but also because the records are unbreakable, and a diamond point is used instead of a dangerous needle. Furthermore the records last practically for ever and can not be marred and destroyed as with a needle machine.

300 KILLED IN COLLISION

Irish Liner Connemara and Steamer Retriever Collide in Irish Channel Today.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Nov. 4.—Many lives, some estimates going as high as 300, were lost in the collision in the Irish channel today between the Irish liner Connemara and the steamer Retriever. The details are unavailable. It is reported the Connemara, almost cut in two, sank.

A later dispatch says that three hundred lives were lost in the collision when the passenger liner Connemara Holyhew, on its way from England to Greenmore Island, was almost cut in two by the steamer Retriever. The accident took place in the middle of the Irish sea last night. An admiralty vessel was ordered to the scene of the disaster to search for possible victims, the majority of whom were men. The reports indicate that the Retriever also sank in a very few minutes after the Connemara went down.

This afternoon a list of 100 was made of those involved in the Connemara disaster. Fifty-seven of these were passengers.

qualified, he will make a first class sheriff. "Fatty" Moberly will have no favorites, he will treat all alike and will be diligent in enforcing the laws and performing the duties of his office. A vote for him will be well bestowed.

For Treasurer.

James W. Blagg is the Democratic nominee for treasurer and is an honorable, upright and conscientious gentleman and has the confidence and esteem of all who know him. All his life he has been an industrious, hard working man and a good citizen and neighbor. He deserves a vote of confidence from the people of Nodaway county at the coming election. You will make no mistake in casting your ballot for Jim Blagg.

For Prosecuting Attorney.

It is always a pleasure to commend a faithful official who has been true to his trust and given the office the best that is in him. This is especially true of W. G. Sawyers, present prosecuting attorney. It is upon his record of service the past two years that Mr. Sawyers asks your support. He is an able student of law, experienced in regular and special court procedure and fully qualified in every particular to hold the office, and will make a safe and reliable legal adviser for the county.

For County Judges.

Judge Matt Farnan, member of the county court from the south district, is completing his first term of two years in that office. Judge Farnan has made good. He has been a real servant of the county. He has exercised economy in the people's business. He has been a consistent good roads and bridge builder. He is the right man in the right place.

George Hepburn for member of the county court from the north district is a young man who is held in universal esteem by all who know him. His honor, integrity and business ability are beyond question. He is in no sense an office seeker and cares little for political honor or notoriety. He is above petty and local considerations and is big enough to represent and consider the interests of the county as a whole. He deserves your vote.

For Public Administrator.

Frank Roelofson of Maryville is the Democratic nominee for this office. It can be said with every degree of truth that he is well qualified for this particular office and honest to the core. During his last term all estates that have been turned over to Public Administrator Roelofson have been managed wit hability and good judgment. Mr. Roelofson should receive an endorsement for another term upon his excellent record.

For Coroner.

Dr. H. S. Rowlett is the nominee of the Democrats for this office. He is one of the most prominent physicians in Nodaway county. He moved to Maryville a few years ago from Graham, where he is well known and is held in high esteem. He is a fine gentleman and will faithfully serve this county.

For Surveyor.

The Democratic party has renominated Joseph E. Reese for the office of county surveyor. That he is well qualified can't be denied. He will do the right thing under any and all circumstances. He is the right man for the place and should be elected.

AUTO RACES YESTERDAY

Only a Few Cars Were Entered—Theo Robinson Wins in the Stultz Race. Other Winners.

Every little turn has a meaning all its own. At least this might easily have been the logical reasoning of the drivers in the automobile races yesterday afternoon. For with a half-mile track and low banking on the curves it takes careful driving to hold the track on the four sharp turns. Five cars entered in the races put on speed exhibitions of driving, in competition, driving against time and with a free-for-all in the last race.

The little old Fords rambled right along with the high powered Buicks, Stavers and Haynes and the smaller cars made up something that they lacked in power by being able to take the turns quicker. The speed records showed about an average of 45 miles an hour, but necessarily skillful driving at the turns made it more interesting to the spectators.

An outside entry of three regular touring cars, all Stultzes, attracted attention. The entries were Theodore Robinson, John Griffey and a visitor from Kansas City. Robinson won by outdistancing about a lap in the two and a half mile drive, winning in 4 minutes and 12 seconds.

An interesting incident of the races was when one of two Fords, in a five mile race, lost a rear tire in the first lap. However, the plucky driver went right along on the rim and lost by only fifty feet.

Five members of the library board were present. They were R. L. McDougal, Dr. F. M. Martin, Prof. C. A. Hawkins, G. B. Roseberyy and Dr. L. E. Dean.
